Coface: Łukasz Kiliński appointed new Commercial Director for Central Europe

The international credit insurer Coface strengthens its regional management team: Łukasz Kiliński (32) started as Regional Commercial Director for Central Europe on 1st April, 2014 and will be responsible for the regional business activities reporting directly to Katarzyna Kompowska, CEO of the region.

Born in Poland, Lukasz studied International Sales and Corporate Finance in Warsaw. Most recently, he was also responsible as Head of Sales for the entire sales activities of the Coface Group in Poland and on a regional level he worked as a Global Solution team member. Before joining the Coface Group Lukasz was Key Account Manager at the Commerzbank Group Polfactor, and before that worked for Pekao Factoring and Raiffeisen Leasing Poland.

Katarzyna Kompowska, CEO of Central Europe commented: "Łukasz Kiliński has as a result of his excellent performance and capabilities, already contributed significantly to the success of the credit insurance business of Coface Poland. Mr. Kilinski has a profound knowledge of the company and the region. He brings outstanding leadership qualities and will make an important contribution to strengthen the market position of Coface in the region. Accordingly I am particularly pleased that he has accepted this challenge."
